'Making Muffins

Brett will preheat the oven early and will then brush some oil thinly on the base of the muffin tin. Tanya will slowly sift two cups of flour into the bowl. She will then gradually mix the butter into the flour. Brett will carefully break an egg into the bowl and beat it vigorously with a whisk. He will add the egg to the flour and steadily pours in the milk. Tanya will gently stir the mixture with a spoon and put the batter in the fridge for five minutes to chill. She will spoon the batter evenly into the tins filling each half full. Tanya will put a piece of chocolate inside each muffin and quickly press chocolate bits all over the top of the muffins. She will carefully put the muffins into the oven where they should cook perfectly in 25 minutes.
