Hints for solving:
* Look for beginnings, such as UN- or SUB-, and endings, such as -ER or -ISM. Look for blends, such as ST, PR or ND.
* Write the letters in a different order; you may spot something different.
* Don't forget to look for words that begin with a vowel.
* When you find a word, try reading it backwards, to see if it suggests another word.
* When you find a word, try to find all the rearrangements of its letters that also form words.
* When you find a word, try substituting the remaining letters into it.
